

Her Failing.
First, he was called last week by the sickness of his mother.

K. O. Kleissig, of Patterson, N. J., visited friends in Huntingdon last week.

Mrs. W. W. Murray returned Sunday from visiting relatives in Lexington.

Kit Aden and family visited relatives in Benton county during the holidays.

Miss Mabel Clark has returned from a several months' stay in Meridian, Miss.

Audie Belew came up from Brownsville and spent Christmas with home folks.

Miss Vivian Hawkins went to Nashville Monday for a two months course of study.

Mr. and Mrs. John Clark returned Monday from visiting relatives at Greenfield.

Thomas Vawter, of Trimble, visited his brothers, Lon and Irvin Vawter, last week.

H. B. Shockley spent part of Christmas week with home folks at Fountain Run, Ky.

Miss Dorothy Luten, of Waverly, was a Christmas visitor with Miss Helen Hawkins.

Miss Christine Priest went to Nashville the latter part of last week to study music.

Mrs. Kate Bradford returned Monday to Paducah after spending a week with home folks.

Jim Williams, of Dover, spent a few days in Huntingdon during the holidays visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Milburn Gardner, of Martin, spent Christmas with the family of P. W.

die from the cat.
perhaps the best remembered occued relatives parliament's prison-wen-ty-third district.

Miss Murel McAdoo, after visiting Miss Maynard Traywick, returned last Saturday to her home at Prairie, Mo.

Dr. Leonard Edwards, of Nashville, spent a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Edwards Christmas.

Miss Annie Fowler returned Wednesday to her teaching at Marco, Fla., after spending a week with home folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Vawter entertained with a Christmas dinner in honor of their son, Noell Vawter, of Memphis.

Miss Hallie Caldwell, of Jonesboro, Ark., visited the families of Eugene Hawkins and W. F. Jones since our last issue.

Mrs. Harry Vest, of Magnolia, Miss., is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Perry in the Twenty-third district.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lee entertained with a Christmas dinner in honor of their son, Carnes B. Lee, of San Antonio, Tex.

Miss Ernest Hilliard was in Nashville the latter part of last week to attend the marriage of her niece, Miss Nora Warren.

Rev. P. F. Johnson will preach at the C. P. church next Sunday morning and in the afternoon at 2:30. Everybody invited to hear him.

J. W. McIver and son, Charlie, after spending Christmas week with Mr. and Mrs. C. T. Pate in Ward, Ark., have returned to their home near McKenzie. Mrs. Pate is a daughter of Mr. McIver.

Holladay has been back to his old home since he left 16 years ago.

Mrs. E. C. Freeman and daughter, Miss Frances, are in Chattanooga visiting Mrs. Freeman's sister, Mrs. Harvey Armstrong, and other relatives. They will return home about the 10th of this month.

D. J. Hastings killed two hogs recently that weighed 981 pounds. They were well bred hogs and cost him no more than scrubs would have cost. It pays to have good stock and give them proper attention.

Sheriff Kirk went to Kansas City the first of the week and brought back Tee Foster, colored, wanted here for the killing of Jewel Bell, colored, at McLemoresville last July 8. He was arrested by the the police of Kansas City.

S. A. Chandler, who is working for the Virginia Bridge and Iron Co., spent Christmas with home folks. L. L. Baily, of Batesville, Miss., who is working with Mr. Chandler, came home with him for the Christmas.

Emmett Mount has taken charge of the Home Telephone Company at Trezevant as general manager. The transfer was made Saturday, Mr. W. E. Jones having formerly been in charge. The system continues to grow and is well patronized.

M. T. Bowden, superintendent of the Sunday school at Long Rock, a position he has held for four years, wishes to express, through the Democrat, his hearty appreciation of the gift of five books which the Sunday school presented him as a Christmas remembrance. Mr. Bowden is proud of his school and very grateful for the gift.

who said the ceremony in presence of a few friends. They are clever young people and have many friends who wish them well.

Goodwin-Aden

Mr. Austin Goodwin, of Camden, and Miss Eula Aden, of Huntingdon, were married last Sunday. They were spending the day with Mr. and Mrs. Lester Aden and late in the afternoon drove out to the home of Squire J. M. McCormick and were married. Squire McCormick saying the ceremony. Mr. Goodwin returned to Camden that night and the bride told her people the next day of her marriage and joined her husband in Camden a day or so later. The bride is the daughter of City Marshal S. G. Aden and the groom is the son of a Camden merchant. Their many friends wish them much happiness.

Davison-Harmon

Saturday afternoon, December 23, at 3 o'clock, Mr. Emery Davison and Miss Elva Elizabeth Harmon were married at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. John Harmon. A ring ceremony was said by Rev. C. C. Hines. Miss Laura Herr and Mr. Glenmore Hawkins were attendants. The house was artistically decorated in holly, a beautiful arch being formed under which the ceremony was said. The bride wore a dainty dress of white voile with high girdle of satin. They left the following day for a week or ten days' visit with the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Davison, at Bon

PUBLIC AUCTION

Having sold my interest in our farm I will sell at auction on the farm one mile west of Huntingdon on the McLemoresville road, on at 10 o'clock, the following personal property: Household goods: beds, springs and mattresses, dressers, sewing table, kitchen cabinet, writing desk, buffet, sideboard, steel range cost $55 almost like new, good square piano, tables, safe, cooking utensils, good singer sewing machine, chairs etc. Farm tools: New slip scraper used only four days, good steel lever harrow, spring tooth cultivator, a few fine chickens, about five bushels new era peas, two bushels Neals Paymaster seed corn, field selected, three head of cattle, one cow to be fresh about Jan. 12th, one to be fresh about Feb. 10th, both bred to a registered shorthorn male. One half blood short horn heifer 15 months old, 6 head of hogs one registered OIC sow, bring pigs last of March one OIC gilt bring pigs April 7th, both bred to registered OIC male. One OIC male pig four months old, one OIC gilt four months old, two male pigs 3 months old. Papers go with all these hogs. One good team mare mules 9 years old, one good set work harness and other articles not mentioned.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 11

Terms:—All sums of $5 or under, cash. Over $5 a credit of nine months by giving bankable note with 6 per cent interest. 4 per cent discount for cash.

S. L. HERR, AUCTIONEER

A. H. NEWHOUSE